I know pretty sure we are going overseas & it looks like we are going as an Army of occupation or police up outfit. That means we will be gone for a short long while. I sure hate to think about it but that is that. For the wedding I'm glad you want *a plain one as we are just plain folks.

And don't worry about us getting along. Darling we will if we try.*

They say that how we will get out of the Army later is by: how long you have been in & how many dependents one has.

& I sure would like to have another one.

Maybe this isn't the right way to look at things but this Army doesn't do & treat everyone & thing the right way. I'm like you are honey I want *to have a home before we start with a family.

I guess it is sorta silly to think about that now but better now than afterwards. Sometimes I wonder if we love one another too much to have to be apart, but Darling I can't help it because I love you just natural.*
