

no.2

DOSSIER

Baskerville: a serif typeface designed in 1757 by John Baskerville; transitional; distinguished by increased contrast between thick and thin strokes (compared to older faces) and the use of ball terminals and swash tails, especially in the italic form

Best For: soul searching